

TRES-BIEN TRIP TO THE SOUTH OF FRANCE

WHERE THE SUN SHINES EVERY DAY

A TRIP to the South of France provides both a lavish and relaxed travel experience filled with an abundance of amazing sights, food and wines. Known as the Côte d'Azur region, this area seems daunting during the busy summer months, but it still packs a special punch. Prosecco and sparkling wine are still popular in the region, and the Côte d'Azur region may just be the best beach town in the world. It's a beautiful beach and resort town with several camp sites as well as beautiful beaches and mountains. BOONDS WITH A VIEW
This restaurant is slightly more relaxing for a treat. Our base was the lovely boutique hotel in the centre of town. The restaurant is a delicious 'broadband' and a half hour flight with Air Lingus meant the journey home was a breeze.
